Management Discussion & Analysis Report

Economic Overview

The world economy witnessed a major slowdown in 2012 due to the uncertainties of fiscal imbalance in many economies coupled with reduced trade and investments. The report of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) shows that the global GDP expanded at 3.2% in 2012, with average growth rates of 1.2% and 5.1% in advanced and developing economies, respectively.

Indian economy growth rate declined from 6.2% in 2011-2012 to 5% in 2012-2013, the slowest growth of the economy in a decade which was mainly due to decline in service and industrial sectors. The subdued performance of service sector was mainly due to slowdown in global economy and the decline in industrial output was due to slow down in mining, manufacturing and capital goods sector.

The reforms measures announced by the Government of India in the form of reducing fuel subsidies, implementation of big-ticket infrastructure projects, direct cash transfers of subsidies, recent changes in FDI and several regulatory reforms including the new Companies Bill, Land Acquisition Bill and the Direct Tax Code augurs well for a pick-up in growth in 2013-14.

Ferro Alloys Industry

Ferro alloys are used in the production of steel as de-oxidant and alloying agents and act as an intermediate industry to the iron & steel industry. The demand and prices of ferro alloys depend on the production and consumption of steel which in turn depends upon its user industries. The product mix of ferro alloys consists of bulk ferro alloys-HC ferro manganese, silico manganese, ferro silicon, HC ferro chrome, charge chrome etc and noble ferro alloys-ferromolybdenum, ferro-vanadium, ferrotungsten, ferro-silicon magnesium, ferro-boron and ferro-titanium.

The average global consumption of manganese alloys is about 10-12 (kgs) per ton of steel, according to the International Manganese Institute. Over 80% of the world's ferrochrome is utilised in the production of stainless steel. Stainless steel depends on chromium for its appearance and its resistance to corrosion. The average chrome content in stainless steel is approximately 18%.

Having abundant availability of key resources comprising chrome ore and manganese ore, trained and cost-effective manpower and access to key consumption markets both within the country and outside, India has emerged as a significant ferro alloys manufacturing nation.

Going forward, the demand for Ferro alloys is expected to improve due to increase in investment plan in road sector, expansion in railway, increase in volume by automobile sector, uses of special steel in power sectors and refocus on manufacturing sector.

Stainless Steel Industry

The Indian iron and steel industry is nearly a century old with the first integrated plant set up in 1907. It was the first core sector to be completely freed from the licensing regime (in 1990-91) and the pricing and distribution controls. The New Industrial policy adopted by the Government of India has opened up the iron and steel sector for private investment by removing it from the list of industries reserved for public sector and exempting it from compulsory licensing.

Soaring demand by sectors like infrastructure, real estate, automobiles, railways, airports and other transport system at home and abroad, has put India's steel industry on the world map. As per ISSF, the per capita consumption of stainless steel in India is a little more than 2 kgs. This low per capita consumption of stainless steel in India presents immense opportunities for growth in domestic stainless steel market.

Management Discussion & Analysis Report

Opportunities and Threats

The demand for ferro alloys is driven by steel production, which in turn depends on growth from the infrastructure, housing, automobile and consumer durable industries. India, at a per capita steel consumption of 60 kgs, is just above the average across most of Africa and much below the global average of 215 kgs, thereby reflecting massive under-penetration and immense opportunities for growth, which will in turn, drive ferro alloys demand as these are key input resources for iron and steel manufacture.

Electrical energy is one of the major input in production of ferro alloys and high power tariff is a threat for the ferro alloys industry. The element of cross subsidisation to agriculture, low power load factor and transmission and distribution losses lead to an increase in power costs. Apart from electrical energy, the industry also faces challenges of acquiring good quality raw materials like high grade ores and coke. The unavailability of rakes for transportation of raw materials from mines and poor infrastructure at ports result in pile-ups and increase in logistic and inventory cost.

To mitigate the increasing power cost risk the ferro alloys producers are now focusing on setting up their captive power units. This will help reduce the input cost and ensures continuous supply of power to the downstream project. In the long run this effort of backward integration shall eventually help the domestic ferro alloys producers to compete in the international market. Moreover with India remaining as one of the largest producers of manganese ore, there is adequate availability of the resource for the production of manganese based ferro alloys.

Further, it is hoped that the government would recognise the challenges arising out of periodic administered price increases of power and input materials which hamper the competitiveness of this industry and take steps to address them urgently to enable the ferro alloys producers to compete in the domestic as well as international markets.

The usage and application of Stainless Steel is fast expanding in various fields like house ware, hardware, furniture, machinery, railways, building, construction and automotive industry. The per capita consumption of stainless steel in India is around 2 kgs. The low per capita consumption of stainless steel, provides ample opportunity for the growth at domestic level. However, the un remunerative prices, high capital cost, high cost of basic input and services, sluggish economic growth, high inflation, tightening of monetary policy, amongst others may effect the growth of industry in the medium term.

Risks and Concerns

The cost-effective availability and quality of essential raw material resources is a global challenge. India has rich mineral resources. It has abundance of mineral resources including iron ore, coal, chromite and manganese ore and many other raw materials. The Company is maintaining a healthy position in terms of raw material supply having arrangements with domestic and international manganese ore suppliers. The Company has access to coking and thermal coal mine owned through its wholly owned Subsidiary Company.

Electricity comprises a key cost component in the total operating cost structure and the high administered prices of this essential input impacts the competitiveness of ferro alloys and iron and steel Industry. The ferro alloys producers are now focusing on making their units self reliant by setting up their own power units. This not only reduces the input cost but ensures continuous supply of power. The 67.5 MW captive power plant under implementation shall enables the Company to emerge self-reliant in its power needs and reduce dependence on the expensive grid electricity.

The steel industry is subject to cyclical swing and the industry has experienced only a marginal increase in 2012 due to unfavorable economic condition globally. It is estimated that the world steel consumption will double in next 25 years and the quality improvement of Indian steel combined with low cost advantages will definitely help in export market. There is a enormous scope for increasing the consumption of iron and steel in India in almost all sector. The untapped potential of increasing the consumption, even to reach at the comparable position of developing economy, a quantum jump in the iron and steel will be required. The Company's sales are well-spread to key consumption centers at the domestic and international level. The Company is developing new market segment and enhancing value added services to its customers.

NOTE 1 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

- (a) The financial statements are prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (Indian GAAP) under the historical cost convention on accrual basis and on principles of going concern. The accounting policies are consistently applied by the Company.
- (b) The financial statements are prepared to comply in all material respects with the accounting standards notified by the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956.
- (c) All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Schedule VI (Revised) to the Companies Act, 1956. - (d) The preparation of the financial statements requires estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities on the date of the Financial Statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Differences between the actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialise.

1.2 Revenue Recognition

- (a) Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured.

Export sales are recognised on the issue of bill of lading.
- (c) Export Incentives arising out of Export Sales are accounted for on accrual basis.
- (d) Purchases are inclusive of freight and net of CENVAT / VAT Credit, Trade Discount and Claims.

No write off is made in respect of leasehold land as these are long term leases.
- (c) The carrying amounts of assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date if there is any indication of impairment based on internal/external factors. An impairment loss is recognised wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. Independent Auditors' Report

To
The Board of Directors of Rohit Ferro-Tech Limited

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Rohit Ferro-Tech Limited ("the Company"), and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as "the Group"), which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2013, and the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss and the Consolidated Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows of the Company in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In the case of the Company's subsidiary, SKP Overseas Pte Ltd., the audit report issued by their auditor includes the following observation:

- a) Due to non receipt of audited financial statements relating to the investment in PT Pacific Samudra Perkasa amounting to USD 6 million (INR 3,263.36 lacs), they are not able to satisfy themselves on the carrying value of the investment as at year end.
- b) Trade Receivable includes USD 0.91 million (INR 494.94 lacs) due from supplier for claim for breaching contract terms. They are unable to satisfy themselves on the recoverability of the amount at the date of the report.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors on the financial statements of the subsidiaries as noted below, except for the effects of the matters described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India :

- (i) in the case of the Consolidated Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Group as at 31st March, 2013;
- (ii) in the case of the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, of the profit for the year ended on that date; and

NOTE 42

Exceptional Item represents provision for additional power charges for the period upto 31st March, 2012 on retrospective revision of power tariff, net of waiver of Electricity Duty and Power Incentive recognised, on receipt during the current year of Eligibility Certificate, under the West Bengal Incentive Scheme, 2000 and other approvals. Since the exceptional item relates to the previous periods, the management treated the same as a rare circumstance and, to reflect the true and fair representation of the performance of the Company for the year, considered it appropriate that the profits after tax be presented before the exceptional item, and then give effect to the exceptional item instead of making disclosure as per the current format in Part-II of Schedule VI (Revised) to the Companies Act, 1956. The Current tax figure is net of ₹ 863.33 Lacs, being the tax effect on the Exceptional item.

NOTE 43

Effective 1st April 2012, the Company has adopted the principles of Hedge Accounting as set out in Accounting Standard (AS) 30 on Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement, in respect of foreign exchange forward contracts which have been taken against forecasted transactions and which are not covered by the requirements of Accounting Standard (AS) 11- 'The Effects of changes in Foreign Exchange Rates'. Accordingly, net loss of ₹ 110.48 lacs arising on fair valuation of outstanding derivatives as on 31st March, 2013 that are designated as effective cash flow hedges has been adjusted against Hedging Reserve.

NOTE 44

Previous year's figures have been reworked, regrouped, rearranged and reclassified wherever considered necessary to conform to this year's classification. Accordingly, amounts and other disclosures for the preceding year are included as an integral part of the current year financial statements and are to be read in relation to amounts and other disclosures relating to the current year.
